2016-17 UNCG WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued upon request to working members of the print and broadcast media. Internet-based media members will be provided credentials on a space-available basis. The UNCG Athletic Communications Office retains the right to deny or revoke credentials to media outlets or a specific member of the media.

All requests for credentials must be received no later than 36 hours before the game. Credential requests made on the day of the game can not be guaranteed and should be avoided.

For games on the UNCG campus, credentials can be picked up at the will call gate of UNCG's Fleming Gymnasium. Any outlet that is issued a season credential should still contact Liv Coiro in the Athletic Communications office to obtain courtside seating for all events.

Professional scouts should contact the Athletic Communications Office for press row space. Professional scouts will be required to buy a ticket and shall only receive space on press row if seats are available.

Spouses, dates and children will not be granted working credentials. Non-working media will only be issued credentials on a space-available basis. Requests for media credentials should be sent to Liv Coiro, UNCG Athletic Communications Office, PO Box 26168, Greensboro, N.C., 27402 or by email to oacoiro@uncg.edu.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking is available in the Walker Avenue parking deck, located across the street from Fleming Gym. There is no charge for parking in the deck on game days during the time frame of an hour before and after each contest.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Accredited photographers may shoot from either baseline, but must contact Liv Coiro in the UNCG Media Relations Office for credentials. Photography from press row is not allowed without the expressed consent of a UNCG athletics communications staff member. Due to a limited number of phone lines on press row, telephone lines for use by photographers must be ordered in advanced and may require an installation fee to be paid by the outlet.

INTERVIEWS

Head coach Wendy Palmer will be available for postgame interviews in the UNCG Media Room following her commitment to radio interviews. Requested players will be available after a 10-minute "cooling off" period. Up to three players will be brought to the media room for games played at Fleming Gym. THE UNCG LOCKER ROOM IS CLOSED TO THE MEDIA.

Unless expressed permission is given by the Athletics Communications Office, players are not available prior to a contest. Requests for pregame interviews with coaching staff members should be communicated to a member of the athletics communications staff as early as possible.

Each day prior to the start of practice, selected players can be made available for interviews by calling the Athletics Communications Office before noon. All interviews must be completed 15 minutes before the start of practice. For interviews with Coach Palmer, contact the Athletics Communications Office. Practices are generally closed to the media, but may be opened at the discretion of the coaching staff. News camera taping of practice can be denied at the discretion of the coaching staff. For practice schedules, please contact Liv Coiro in the Athletics Communications office.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

The UNCG Athletic Communications Office will do everything possible to accommodate the needs of media covering Spartan athletics. Wireless Internet access is available on a guest server at Fleming Gym. Please see a athletics communications staff member for assistance. At Fleming Gym, a series of phone lines are available courtside for use by media members. For those wishing to make long distance calls, it is mandated by the UNCG Athletic Communications Office that those calls should be collect, with a calling card or via a toll-free number. Exceptions may only be granted by the athletics communications staff and should be requested before gameday. In the case of exceptions, media outlets will be billed for toll calls made.

Print media (including photographers) wishing to have dedicated phone lines should contact the UNCG Athletics Communications office at least one week in advance of gameday. All installation charges will be billed to the media outlet. Please contact Liv Coiro in the Athletics Communications Office for details.

Visiting broadcast media are provided one telephone line per Southern Conference policy. Nonconference schools wishing to use ISDN will be required to pay a usage fee. (Contact Liv Coiro in the Athletic Communications Office for details.) Requests for additional phone lines should be made well in advance of gameday. Additional phone lines will be provided if available. If not, the media outlet will be responsible for the installation and all applicable charges.

Internet media outlets provided with credentials will only be provided phone lines if available.

Athletics Communications staff members will provide in-game statistics to members of the media on press row via printed box scores and/or courtside stat monitors.

UNCG ON THE WEB • www.UNCGSpartans.com

UNCGSpartans.com, designed in a partnership with Neulion, combines the usual reliability of scores, stats, game previews and reviews with new features and cutting-edge technology. It also includes multimedia features, including live and tape-delayed game footage, coach and game video features, an online store to buy tickets and the latest "Spartan Gear" and much, much more. Notes, releases, statistics and other pertinent information are available on the UNCG official website. Statistics are updated approximately one hour after each game. Notes are typically available 24 hours prior to tip-off for each game. FOR ADVANCE COPY OF GAME NOTES (PRIOR TO POSTING ON THE WEBSITE), MEDIA MEMBERS SHOULD CONTACT THE ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE • www.SoConSports.com

The SoCon website is available at www.soconsports.com. The site contains current information on all facets of the Southern Conference. Please contact Media Relations Assistant Cobey Culton in the SoCon Office at 864-591-5100 for more information.

SPARTANS ON THE AIR

All home women's basketball games are streamed free of charge on the Internet at www.UNCGSpartans.com via the SoCon Digital Network.

UNCG POLICY ON INJURY REPORTS

Due to circumstances surrounding the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), UNCG has developed a policy regarding the release of injury information.

UNCG student-athletes have the right to hold all injury information, except body part and playing status, confidential and private. As a standard operating procedure, coaches, media relations staff and other athletic department personnel should refrain from sharing specific injury information with the media. However, in certain occasions, injury information could be released at the discretion of the media relations department after authorization is obtained from the student-athlete.

It is the policy of the UNCG athletic training staff to not address the media unless it is absolutely necessary. Therefore, inquiries by the media regarding medical situations should be addressed to Liv Coiro in the Athletics Communications Office.

The 2015-16 UNCG women's basketball digital guide was written by Olivia Coiro, UNCG Assistant Director of Athletics Communications with assistance from Assistant Athletics Director Matt McCollester, Assistant Director of Athletics Communications Chip Welch and Director of New Media Dacia Ijames.

This publication was designed using Adobe Creative Suite CS6.

FLEMING GYM

The UNCG women's basketball team enjoys a distinct home court located in the Coleman Building, a $16.2 million facility which opened in 2008. The gym underwent a facelift to improve seating amenities. In the summer of 2007, the gym underwent a major renovation project. The project included expanded and modernized space for numerous other activities. The gymnasium, which has seating for more than 10,000, opened on Dec. 1, 1994 for Fleming, a Greensboro civic leader whose advocacy led to the construction of the Coleman Building. The Spartan men's basketball team occupied the gym during the 1989-90 academic year. The largest crowd for a basketball game against Charleston Southern on Feb. 25, 1995. The gymnasium has hosted numerous conference championship tournaments, including Big South volleyball in 2001, Southern Conference women's basketball in 1998 and 1999, Southern Conference men's basketball in 2001 and 2008. In 2005, the facility hosted the SoCon-ACC Wrestling Championships. In the 2006-07 season, the Boston Celtics held their training camp inside the gymnasium.

Dr. Franklin M. Gilliam Jr. - Chancellor

Franklin D. Gilliam, Jr. was elected as the eleventh Chancellor of The University of North Carolina at Greensboro, by the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina, effective September 8, 2015. Chancellor-Elect Gilliam brings to UNGC and the UNC system a wealth of experience from a career that spans over thirty years in higher education.

Prior to this appointment, Dr. Gilliam served as Dean of the UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs for seven years and was a longtime UCLA Professor of Public Policy and Political Science. His research focused on strategic communications, public policy, electoral politics, and racial and ethnic politics.

As Dean of UCLA Luskin, Gilliam shepherded a $50 million naming gift, and he led the school's charge to redefine its critical advantage and transform its scholarly and practical influence with innovation and impact. Dr. Gilliam launched UCLA Luskin's strategic plan in October 2011 with such new initiatives as Global Public Affairs, Digital Cities, Inequality and Democracy, Arts and Culture Policy, and Leadership. Dr. Gilliam focused on identifying society's most pressing problems and establishing the school as a leader in addressing these concerns.

Prior to his appointment as Dean at UCLA, Gilliam served as the inaugural Associate Vice Chancellor of Community Partnerships in the University of California system from 2002 to 2008. As Vice Chancellor, he championed UCLA's civic engagement by supporting engaged scholarship and community collaborations to improve the quality of life for residents of Los Angeles.

Dr. Gilliam is the author of Farther to Go: Readings and Cases in African-American Politics (Harcourt Brace) and his work has been published in many leading academic journals. He is frequently interviewed or cited by national and international news outlets such as CNN, The New York Times, The Washington Post, NPR, HuffingtonPost and the BBC.

Gilliam is a senior fellow with the FrameWorks Institute (winner of the 2015 MacArthur Award for Creative and Effective Institutions), where he has served as director for the "Framing Race in America" project and has contributed to research and training on health care, racial equity, early child development, youth and rural issues, and criminal justice. Gilliam chairs the Board of Trustees for the Blue Shield of California Foundation, and serves on the boards of Southern California Grantmakers, United Way of Greater Los Angeles, and FrameWorks Institute.

He was honored with the 2015 Upton Sinclair Award by the Liberty Hill Foundation for his renowned work advancing civic engagement and commitment to social justice. Twice nominated for UCLA's Luckman Distinguished Teaching Award, Gilliam has also taught at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Grinnell College and the University of Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania, and was a Visiting Scholar at Brandeis University.

In addition, he taught at Columbia University, Fisk University and Middle Tennessee State University with former Vice President Al Gore. Dr. Gilliam received his B.A. from Drake University, and his M.A. and Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Iowa.

Kim Record - Director of Athletics

Kim Record is in her seventh year as the Director of Athletics at UNCG in 2015-16. Record was named to the post Sept. 27, 2009 and leads a program that fields men's and women's teams in 17 sports, over 250 student-athletes and 70 employees. She was recently honored as one of 28 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award recipients at the 2014 NACDA Convention in Orlando in the NCAA Division I-AAA category.

Since arriving, Record has reshaped and revamped the athletic department across the board. UNCG has seen improvements on the field and has stimulated interest within the campus and Greensboro communities.

During her first five years at UNCG, Record has implemented 'The Spartan Way' strategic plan in an effort to ensure the continued success and future improvement of Spartan Athletics. The plan includes five core values and six goals for the department summarized with the motto - 'We discover and develop champions in life.'

Record has guided UNCG to success on and off the court during her time in Greensboro. In 2011-12 alone, the Spartans posted five regular season titles under her watch, including championship banners in men's and women's cross country, men's soccer, women's tennis and a divisional title in men's basketball. UNCG also had five Southern Conference Player of the Year award winners and five conference Coach of the Year honorees last season.

The Spartans have excelled in the classroom, having 92 student-athletes named to the SoCon Academic Honor Roll in 2011-12. Additionally, UNCG senior cross country student-athlete Ashley Schnell earned an NCAA winter sport postgraduate scholarship. Schnell and men's soccer student-athlete Peyton Ford picked up SoCon postgraduate scholarship honors. Women's basketball student-athlete Amy Clapper also earned the NCAA Women's Enhancement post-graduate scholarship.

Record guided UNCG through the NCAA Division I Certification process in 2011-12, which must be completed at least once every 10 years. The certified designation denotes that an institution operates its athletics program in compliance with operating principles adopted by the Division I membership.

Record, who served on the NCAA Championships cabinet in 2012-13, is also the vice-chair of the Greensboro Sports Commission, an active member with the Greensboro Rotary, a member of the Greensboro Sports Council and a member of the Women's Professional Forum.

Record, in conjunction with Chancellor Dr. Linda P. Brady, helped develop school spirit-building campaigns such as Move In, Sunday Funday, Go Blue Preview and Blue & Gold Fridays.

Record is responsible for the leadership, administration, organization and finances of UNCG's athletics program, which underwent a major shift in men's basketball. The Spartan men's basketball team began playing its games in the Greensboro Coliseum in 2009-10 and enjoyed success last season under SoCon Coach of the Year Wes Miller winning the North Division title. The Spartans will play in the Greensboro Coliseum for the fourth year in 2012-13, hosting 15 games in one of the premier facilities in the region.

Record coordinates fundraising and operation of the Spartan Club with the vice chancellor for university advancement. She oversees efforts to engage alumni, fans and the community with UNCG athletics. The Spartan Club surpassed its annual scholarship fund goal for the 2012 fiscal year and set a new all-time record for the scholarship fund. The Spartan Club increased its annual scholarship fund by 20.7% over last year's mark, increasing their efforts by over $50,000 and surpassing the previous high that was set in 1987.

Record also has a lead role in strategic planning and in athletics facilities development. She helped complete the facility upgrades at the UNCG Baseball Stadium and the renovations of the HHP locker room facilities. The 12,000 square foot HHP facility hosts team lounges, shower facilities and general locker room areas for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's cross country and track, men's and women's soccer, volleyball and softball.

Within the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), Record has served on both the executive committee and the Director's Cup Committee. Within the NCAA, she served on the Women's Soccer Committee and the Regional Soccer Committee.

A native of Charlottesville, she graduated from Virginia and earned an M.S. degree in sports management from Florida State. She has two sons - Kyle, 26 who lives in California and Josh, 21, a junior student-athlete at the College of Charleston.

Trina Patterson

Head Coach

First Season at UNCG ♦ Virginia '87 ♦ 0-0 Overall ♦ 0-0 SoCon

Trina Patterson was named the UNCG women's basketball head coach April 17, 2016. Patterson brings 17-years of head coaching experience at the NCAA Division I level to the Spartans and joins UNCG after spending the last three years as the top assistant at Old Dominion. Additionally, she has been part of USA Basketball as an assistant coach on two different occasions in her career.

Patterson, a native of Newport News, Va., joins the Spartans after spending the last three years on the staff at Old Dominion for coach Karen Barefoot. During her time at ODU, the Lady Monarchs posted three straight appearances in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT), including second round showings the past two years. She helped ODU record 56 wins over the past three seasons, including a 21-win campaign in 2014-15.

Patterson has helped Old Dominion bring in recruiting classes ranked in the top 50 in the nation the last two seasons. During her time she has helped the Lady Monarchs boast six All-Conference honorees, including Jennie Simms. Simms was named the 2015 C-USA Newcomer of the Year and is a two-time Conference USA All-Conference First Team selection. Patterson's leadership extended far beyond the basketball court as well, as six Lady Monarchs were named to the C-USA All-Academic Team and two received C-USA Academic Medals.

Old Dominion was a defensive force in Conference USA during Patterson's time in Norfolk. The Lady Monarchs finished the season ranked in the top five in six defensive categories, including topping the league in rebounding margin (+6.7) and ranking second in field-goal percentage defense (.397).

Prior to Old Dominion, Patterson spent two seasons working for Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame coach Tara VanDerveer at Stanford, working primarily with the Cardinal frontcourt and recruiting efforts. During that span Stanford racked up a 68-5 record, capturing the Pac-12 double (conference regular-season and tournament titles) each season and reached its fifth straight Final Four in 2012.

Patterson's work with Stanford's post players both seasons led to the Ogwumike sisters, Nnemkadi and Chiney, being named to the WBCA Coaches' All-America Team in 2012, only the second time that Stanford had landed two players to the prestigious team, and Chiney earning her second straight nod in 2013. Both sisters were named to the Associated Press All-America First Team during this time as Nnemkadi earned the honor in 2012 and Chiney in 2013.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Patterson served as head coach at University at Albany from 2002-10. She also served two prior head-coaching tenures -- University of Maryland Eastern Shore (1999-2000) and the College of William & Mary (1991-99). She was named conference coach of the year on two different occasions during her 17-year career as leader of a program, earnings honors at both William & Mary and Albany.

During her 17-year head coaching career, Patterson guided 18 players to America East and Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) conference honors, among those a conference rookie of the year, and members of all-conference, all-rookie, all-defensive, all-academic and all-tournament teams.

At Patterson's first head coaching stop at the College of William & Mary in 1991, she took over a program that had not experienced a winning season at the Division I level. In her second year at the helm, Patterson guided the Tribe to the championship game of the 1993 CAA Tournament, and in her third season led the team to a 20-8 record and a third place finish in the conference standings. For her efforts, Patterson was named 1993-94 CAA Coach of the Year.

During her eight-year stay at Albany, Patterson was named America East Coach of the Year in 2007-08 after guiding the Great Danes to a school-record 10 wins in conference play. Albany would go on to reach the semifinals of the America East Tournament.

As a player, Patterson earned four varsity letters and was a member of four consecutive NCAA Tournament teams under head coach Debbie Ryan at Virginia from 1983-87. During her four years in Charlottesville, the Cavaliers went 95-23, winning 20-plus games each season and capturing three Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season titles. As a team captain during her senior season (1986-87), Patterson helped Virginia post a 26-5 record and reach the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament.

Patterson has also spent time with USA Basketball in both coaching and administrative roles. Her first USA Basketball coaching stint was in 1998, as she served on Nell Fortner's staff for the R. William Jones Cup squad that went 5-0 and captured the gold medal. This team included future Olympians Tamika Catchings and Becky Harmon. She would next reunite with Ryan, serving on Ryan's staff as an assistant coach with the 2003 USA Basketball Pan-American Games Team that won the silver medal.

Patterson earned a bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communication studies from the University of Virginia in 1987. She completed a master's degree in human resource management from National University in 2002.

Patterson and her husband Carl are the parents of three sons, Carl Jr. (CJ), Matthew, and Joshua.

2016-17 UNCG WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Phil Collins

Assistant Coach

First Season at UNCG ♦ North Alabama '09

Phil Collins was named assistant women's basketball coach July 1, 2016. Collins spent a year on Patterson's staff during the 2009-10 season at the University of Albany. His main responsibilities will be overall player development, working with the post players and recruiting with an emphasis on international student-athletes.

Collins began his coaching career in 2009 at the University of Albany as an assistant coach on Patterson's staff. Following the season he returned home to his native Australia where he spent the next year coaching at Knox Grammar in Sydney.

Following Knox, Collins became the head men's and women's coach at University of Technology Sydney for the 2011 season. From 2011-2014 he was the Head Player/Coach Development Manager for Basketball Northern Territory in Darwin, Australia. He made stops with Hills Hornets Championship League Women and Trinity Grammar School where he most recently served as the Assistant Director of Coaching.

Collins began his playing career at New Hampshire as an undergrad but transferred to North Alabama where he helped his team to a NCAA Division II Elite Eight appearance in 2008 when the squad posted 27 wins. He earned a starting role as a senior where he averaged 6.6 points per game and shot 46.3 percent from the field.

He holds a degree in psychology with a minor in fitness management from North Alabama.

2016-17 UNCG WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Cait Wetmore Assistant Coach

Third Season at UNCG ♦ Adelphi '10

Cait Wetmore joined the UNCG women's basketball program as an assistant coach in July of 2014 and was named the women's basketball recruiting coordinator prior to the start of the 2015-16 season.

During the 2015-16 season Wetmore worked primarily with the guards including Lucy Mason who was named SoCon Player of the Week three times, won back-to-back Player of the Month awards and earned both Coaches and Media First Team All-Conference honors. While under the guidance of Wetmore, Mason became the program's all-time leading scorer with 1,907 career points and set the single-game scoring record with 42 points in a game. She maintained a top-10 ranking in the nation for points per game (22.2) during her final year with the Blue & Gold.

Wetmore also coordinated the team's offense that saw a jump in production from the season prior. The Spartans led the Southern Conference in scoring average (65.5 points per game) and offensive rebounds per game (15.5). UNCG shot an impressive 66.1 percent from the field (41-for-62) to set a single-game Division I era (Since 1991) record against North Carolina Central (12/31).

Wetmore oversaw the development of sophomore Keli Foster who went from averaging 7.1 minutes per game as a freshman to 16.5 as a sophomore while earning a starting roll in conference play.

In her first year as recruiting coordinator, Wetmore recruited and signed two McDonald's All-American nominees in Alexis Willey and Mangela Ngandjui.

In her first season with the Spartans, Wetmore worked primarily with the guards including junior Lucy Mason who was named Second Team All-Southern Conference. Wetmore also spent time coordinating the defense which helped UNCG to lead the SoCon in steals, mostly due to the stifling press defense. The Spartans finished the season second in turnover margin in the league as well.

Wetmore, a 2010 Adelphi University graduate and four-year member of the women's basketball team, joined UNCG after serving her alma mater as an assistant coach for two seasons.

During the 2013-14 campaign, Wetmore helped guide Adelphi to the Northeast-10 Conference championship game and a regional semifinal appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Panthers were 23-8 overall and earned a No. 1 seed in the league championship tournament.

In her first year on the sidelines, Wetmore helped the Panthers to a 15-win season; the most since the '06-'07 year which resulted in the program's first NE-10 post season appearance and win since joining the conference in 2009.

Her responsibilities include player development, strength and conditioning, scouting opponents, practice preparation, academic advising and recruiting.

Prior to joining the staff, she served a two-year stint as a graduate assistant coach for the Columbia University women's basketball team. Wetmore earned her Master's Degree in Clinical Social Work in 2012. As a member of the Lions staff, Wetmore assisted in player development, practice and game strategies, scouting and film breakdown.

At Adelphi, Wetmore served as a two-year captain and earned the team's Mary Ann Beaudry Memorial Award for her exemplary leadership in 2009. She played on a pair of WBCA Academic Top 25 squads and was twice selected to the East Coast Conference All-Academic team.

Wetmore is a member of the Women's Coaches Academy, Women's Basketball Coaches Association, Alliance of Women's Coaches, and National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Asia Williams

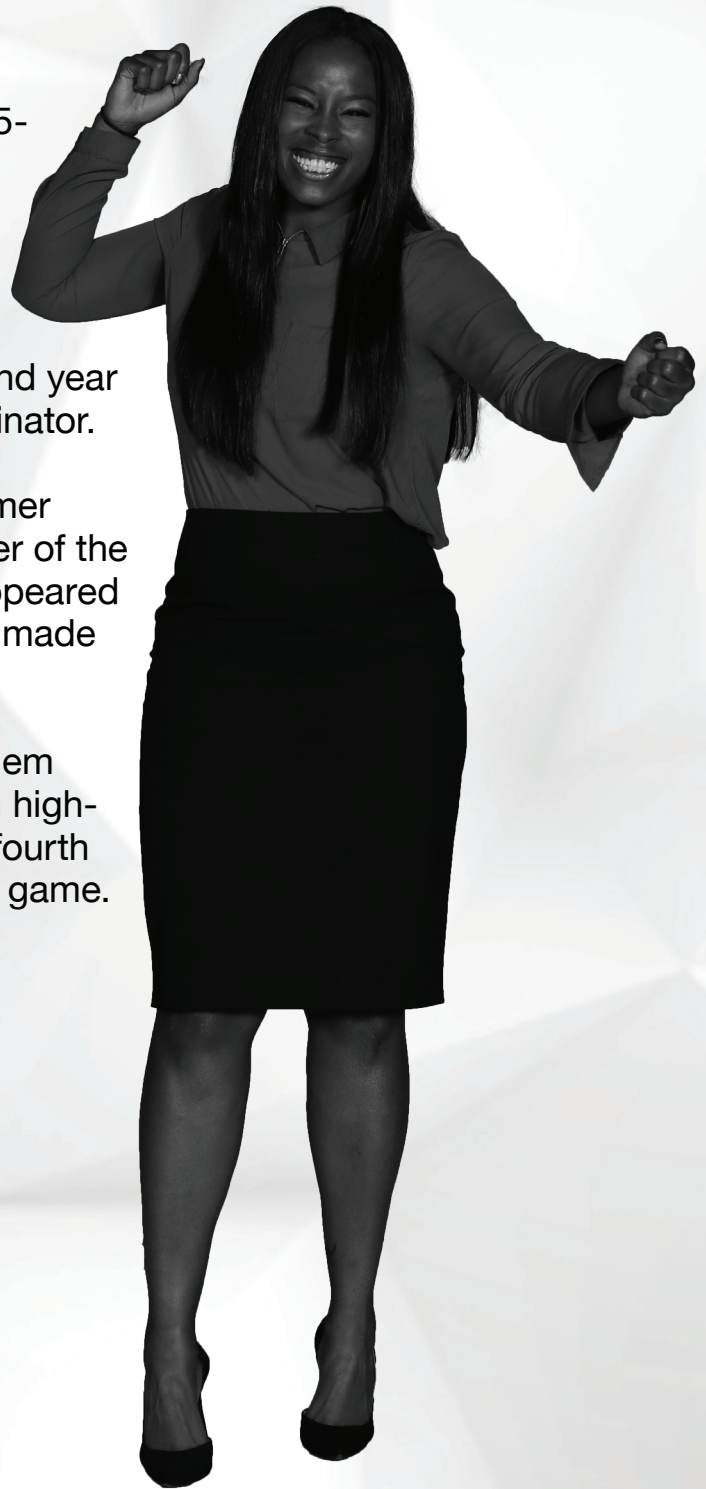

Assistant Coach

First Season at UNCG ♦ Wake Forest '13

Williams joined UNCG staff as an assistant coach in June 2016 after spending the 2015-16 season as an assistant coach at LIU-Brooklyn. She is no stranger to the SoCon as she spent two seasons on the staff at then member Appalachian State helping the Mountaineers to a 10-8 league record in their final year in the SoCon. In her second year at ASU she made the move to video coordinator.

Williams, a native of Durham, N.C., is a former North Carolina High School Gatorade Player of the Year and stand out at Wake Forest. She appeared in 109 games for the Demon Deacons and made 36 starts in the backcourt.

During her senior campaign in Winston-Salem she led the team with 145 assists, the sixth highest in single-season history, while ranking fourth on the team in scoring with 10.4 points per game.

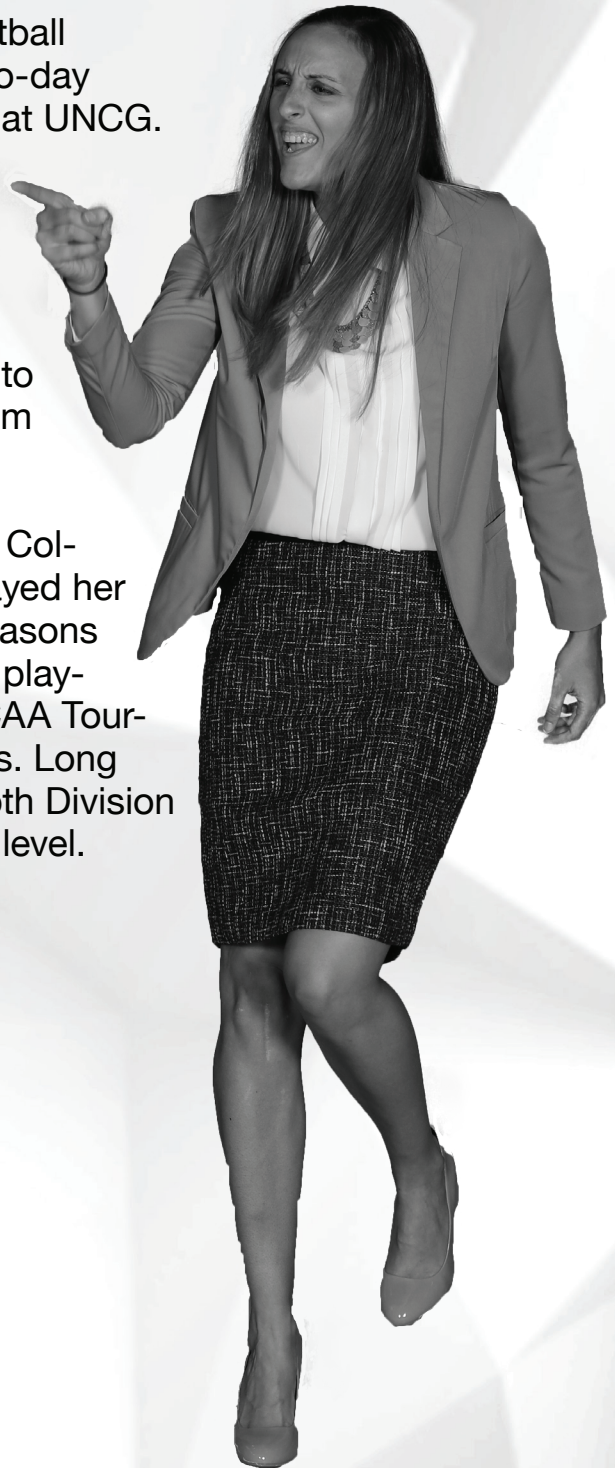

Brooke Long Director of Operations

First Season at UNCG ♦ Franklin Pierce '13

Brooke Long was named the Director of Basketball Operations in June 2016. She will run the day-to-day operations of the women's basketball program at UNCG.

Long spent the past two seasons as an assistant at Christopher Newport where she helped guide them to a 24-5 overall record and a NCAA Division III Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2015-16. In her first season she helped CNU to a 17-win season and assisted with recruiting, film exchange and basketball operations.

Long began her coaching career at Keen State College after a standout basketball career. She played her rookie year at Longwood before playing two seasons at NCAA DII Armstrong State. She finished her playing career as a member of Franklin Pierce's NCAA Tournament team after battling a pair of ACL injuries. Long brings a plethora of knowledge after playing both Division I & II basketball and coaching at the Division III level.

Ka'lia Johnson

Graduate Assistant

First Season at UNCG ♦ Duke '15

Ka'lia Johnson joined the women's basketball coaching staff in August 2016 season as a graduate assistant. Johnson was a member of the 2013 ACC Tournament Champion squad at Duke and helped her team reach the NCAA Elite Eight during her time with the Blue Devils.

Johnson will serve as the team's graduate assistant and will assist with film editing, community service projects and other assigned duties.

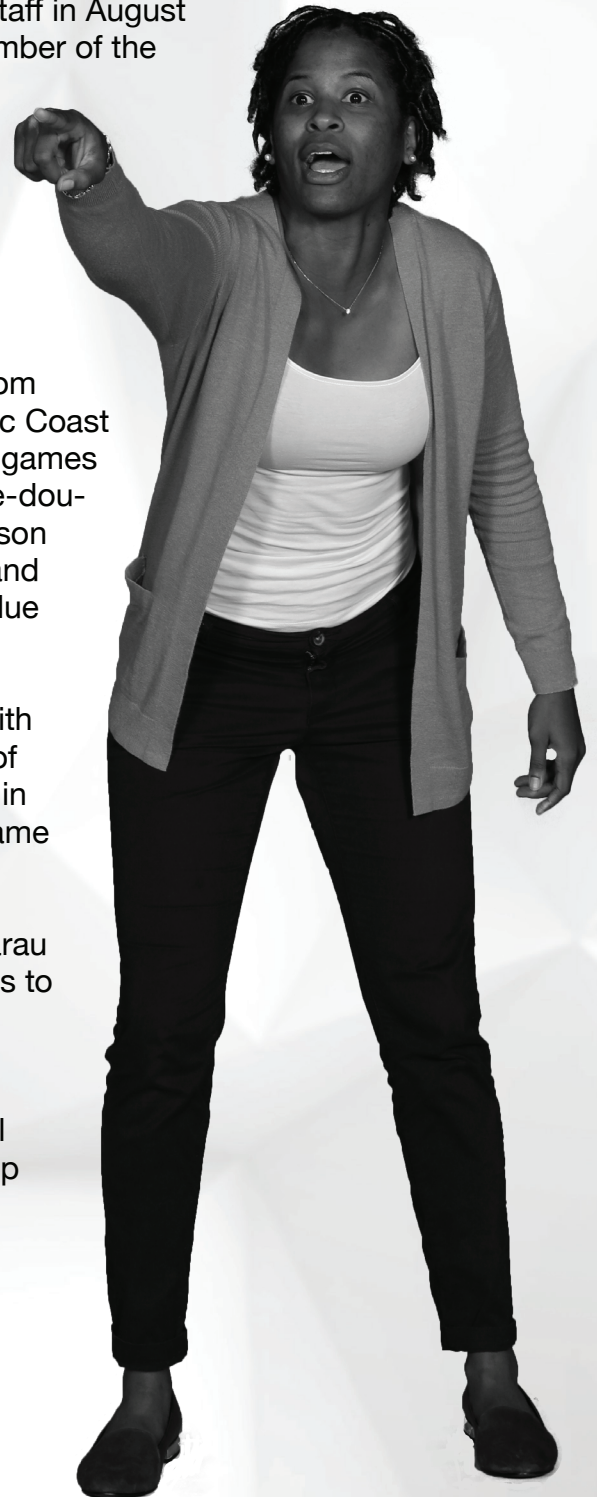

A member of the Blue Devils women's basketball team from 2011-15, Johnson earned a starting role during the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament as a junior. She started 32-of-34 games at point guard as a senior and recorded the seventh triple-double in Duke history against Old Dominion. That same season she finished ranked fifth in the ACC in assists per game and led the team with 126 assists. Johnson was named the Blue Devil's team captain her senior season.

Following graduation she inked a professional contract with BLK Slavia Praha where she was a four-time ZBL Player of the Week in the Czech Republic League. She led the ZBL in rebounds per game (10.5) and was fourth in points per game (19.4).

Last season she served as team captain for Alte Kanti Aarau in Aarau, Switzerland before returning to the United States to take a job as the Fitness Coordinator at American Family Fitness in Colonial Heights, Va.

Johnson has been a Duke University Women's Basketball Summer Camp coach since 2012 and served as the Camp Director from 2014-15.

She holds a bachelor's degree in Sociology from Duke University.

2016-17 UNCG WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

The Southern Conference, which began its 94th season of intercollegiate competition in 2014-15, is a national leader in emphasizing the development of the student-athlete and in helping to build lifelong leaders and role models. The Southern Conference has been on the forefront of innovation and originality in developing creative solutions to address issues facing intercollegiate athletics. From establishing the first conference basketball tournament (1921), tackling the issue of freshmen eligibility (1922), developing women's championships (1984), to becoming the first conference to install the three-point goal in basketball (1980), the Southern Conference has been a pioneer. The Southern Conference is the nation's fifth-oldest NCAA Division I collegiate athletic association. Only the Big Ten (1896), the Missouri Valley (1907), the Pacific 12 (1915) and the Southwestern Athletic (1920) conferences are older in terms of origination. The Conference currently consists of 10 members in six states throughout the Southeast and sponsors 19 varsity sports and championships that produce participants for NCAA Division I Championships.

Membership History

On Feb. 25, 1921, representatives from 14 of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association's (SIAA) 30 members met at Atlanta's Piedmont Hotel to establish the Southern Intercollegiate Conference. On hand at the inaugural meeting were officials from Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute (Auburn), Clemson, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology (Georgia Tech), Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi A&M (Mississippi State), North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Polytechnic Institute (Virginia Tech) and Washington & Lee. Play began in the fall of 1921 and a year later, six more schools joined the fledgling league including Tulane (which had attended the inaugural meeting but had elected not to join), Florida, Louisiana (LSU), Mississippi, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. VMI joined in 1925 and Duke was added in 1929. By the 1930s, membership in the Southern Conference had reached 23 schools. C.P. "Sally" Miles of Virginia Tech, president of the Southern Conference, called the annual league meeting to order on Dec. 9, 1932 at the Farragut Hotel in Knoxville, Tenn. Georgia's Dr. Sanford announced that 13 institutions west and south of the Appalachian Mountains were reorganizing as the Southeastern Conference. Members of the new league included Alabama, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Florida, Georgia, Georgia School of Technology, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Mississippi A&M, University of the South, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. According to the minutes of the meeting, Dr. Sanford stated that the division was made along geographical lines. Florida's Dr. J.J. Tigert, acting as spokesman for the withdrawing group, regretted the move but believed it was necessary as the Southern Conference had grown too large. The resignations were accepted and the withdrawing schools formed the new league which began play in 1932. The Southern Conference continued with membership of 10 institutions including Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina, Virginia, VMI, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee. The second major shift occurred some 20 years later. By 1952, the Southern Conference included 17 colleges and universities. Another split occurred when seven schools including Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest departed to form the Atlantic Coast Conference which began play in 1953. The revamped Southern Conference included members The Citadel, Davidson, Furman, George Washington, Richmond, VMI, Virginia Tech, Washington & Lee, West Virginia and William & Mary. Today, the league continues to thrive with a membership that includes 10 institutions and a footprint that spans six states: Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia and Virginia. Current league members are The Citadel, ETSU, Furman, Mercer, UNCG, Samford, Chattanooga, Western Carolina, Wofford and VMI.

Leadership

John Iamarino was officially named commissioner of the conference on January 2, 2006. Iamarino has promoted the Southern Conference through an ambitious agenda which has improved competition, upgraded compliance-related matters, launched the conference's Hall of Fame and increased the marketing and brand awareness of the conference and its member institutions. The Southern Conference named its first commissioner in December 1950. Duke head football coach Wallace Wade made the transition from Blue Devil football coach to athletics administration as the first person at the helm of the conference. Lloyd Jordan replaced Wade as the commissioner in 1960 and served a 14-year term until Ken Germann became the league head in 1974. Germann was the commissioner for 13 years and orchestrated the league's expansion to include women's athletics. In 1987, he was succeeded by Dave Hart who spearheaded the transfer of the league office from Charlotte, N.C., to Asheville, N.C. Wright Waters succeeded Hart upon his retirement in 1991. Under Waters' leadership, the Southern Conference expanded to 12 members, added three women's sports and posted record revenue from the basketball tournament. Waters, who is currently the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference, was followed by Alfred B. White in 1998. White, a veteran member of the NCAA office, introduced the current conference logo and elevated the conference's commitment to marketing and development of corporate partners. Danny Morrison headed the conference from 2001-2005 and orchestrated the league's move from Asheville, N.C., to Spartanburg, S.C. Under Morrison's leadership, the conference increased its marketing and promotional efforts.

UNCG IN THE NCAA DIVISION I TOURNAMENT

21-9, 12-4 Southern Conference
Southern Conference Tournament Champion
NCAA Tournament First Round

During the 1997-98 season, UNCG, which was picked fourth in the Southern Conference preseason poll, wasted no time in proving to the rest of the league that the Spartans were a force to be reckoned with. In its first year as a member of the SoCon, UNCG carried an eight-game winning streak into the 1998 SoCon tournament. The Spartans then handily defeated Western Carolina, 86-54, before slipping past Davidson, 78-75 to reach the title game.

There, UNCG faced top-seeded Georgia Southern. The Eagles and Spartans had split two meetings that season. UNCG shot just 24 percent from the floor in the first-half and trailed at the break, 32-24. However, Rebecca Viverette poured in 18 second-half points and the Spartans shot 61 percent from the field to get past Georgia Southern, 75-69.

The victory ensured UNCG's first-ever appearance into the NCAA Division I tournament.

The 15th-seeded Spartans faced No. 2 seed Alabama in the first round of the NCAA tournament, falling to the Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa, Ala., 94-46.

Senior Biz Brediger posted the game's only double-double with 13 points and a game-high 14 rebounds, while sophomore Melinda Goodson was also in double figures with 10 points.

The Spartans were led on the season by a pair of All-SoCon first team selections in senior post players Brediger and Viverette. Both players became members of the 1,000-point club during the season, with Brediger scoring 15.7 ppg and Viverette adding 15.4 ppg.

THE SPARTAN CLUB

The mission of the Spartan Club is to secure the financial support that provides our student-athletes with the opportunities to achieve athletic and academic excellence.

MONTHLY DRAFT OF CREDIT CARD

The Spartan Club can draft your credit card account on a monthly basis. Drafts may be authorized on the pledge form.

MATCHING GIFTS

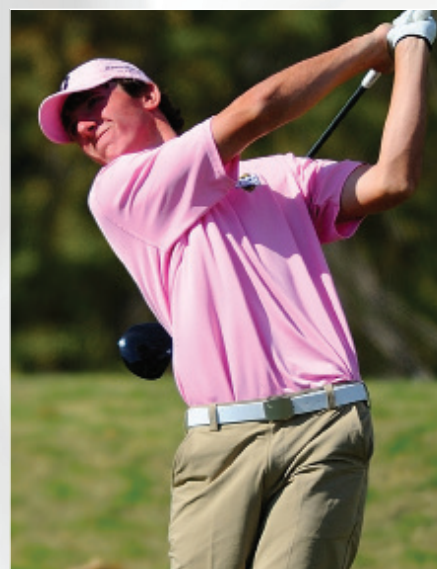

Many companies have a matching gifts program that doubles the value of your gift. Consult your employer for information concerning a matching gift for higher education in support of scholarships for student-athletes. Be sure to enclose your matching gift form with your gift.

ENDOWMENTS

Athletic endowments provide a perpetual source of funding for our student-athlete scholarships and can also support team operational budgets. These gifts ensure financial support in perpetuity. It allows your generosity and your named legacy to live on as a permanent part of UNCG Athletics.

BEQUESTS, STOCKS & SPECIAL GIFTS

When you name the UNCG Spartan Club as a beneficiary in your will or establish a life-income trust, you help to ensure the lasting strength and vitality of the athletic program at UNCG. Bequests, trusts and gifts of appreciated securities, insurance policies and real estate may offer you excellent tax advantages as well. We welcome an opportunity to discuss these giving options with you.

ENDOWED ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIPS

A name endowment to support athletic scholarships may be created with a commitment of $50,000 or more. The endowment generates income that is awarded to a student-athlete on an annual basis.

Women's Basketball Enrichment Fund

You can now make a gift to the UNCG women's basketball program through an enrichment fund for their sport. Each donation will see 80% go directly to the women's basketball program to help fund the team's highest priorities and 20% goes into the athletic scholarship fund, which supports all athletic scholarships, including women's basketball, so 100% of your gift is going to help the women's basketball program.

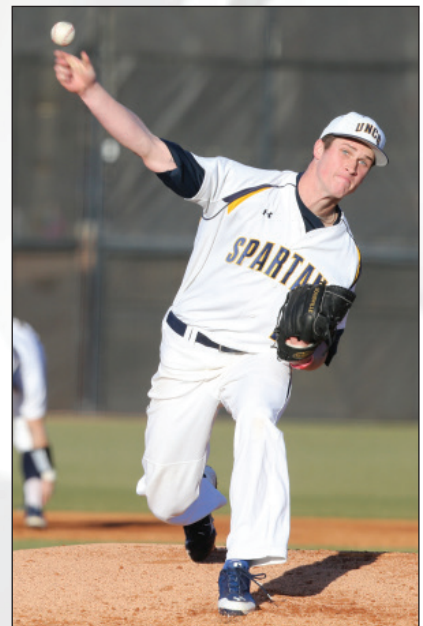

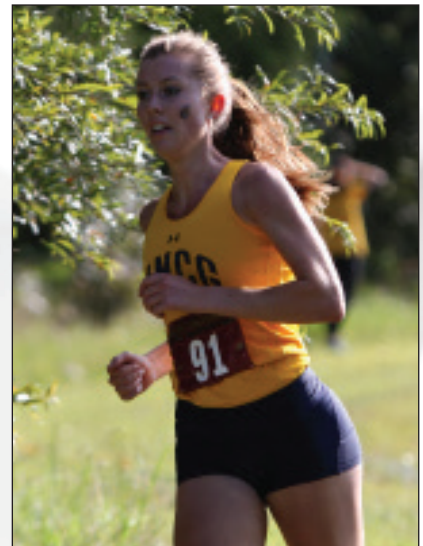

If you are interested in making a gift to the women's basketball enrichment fund, contact the Spartan Club office at 336-334-5156.

2016-17 UNCG WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SPARTAN

Student-athletes at UNCG have enjoyed a tremendous amount of success over the years. Although the athletic department celebrated its 48th season in 2013-14, athletics at UNCG date back to the 1940s in the days before the university became co-ed.

Golfer Nancy Porter, who went on to a successful pro career, is regarded as one of UNCG's first student-athletes, competing in tournaments on the national level in the late 1940s.

In 1963, as the university prepared to go co-ed, UNCG began to formally organize athletic teams. Women's basketball, under head coach Ellen Griffin, women's tennis, women's golf and field hockey were started. LPGA Hall of Famer Carol Mann was on one of the early UNCG women's golf teams.

In 1967, UNCG began men's athletics and the intercollegiate athletics program received formal recognition from the university. In the fall of 1967, the Spartan was adopted as the program's mascot.

In 1968, UNCG's men's teams joined the Dixie Athletic Conference, known today as the USA South Conference, on the NCAA Division III level. Women's teams competed as part of the AIAW early on, with UNCG being one of the lead organizers of the organization. Two of the first men's sports were basketball and bowling.

In 1971, with the emergence of the five-player rule in women's basketball, UNCG finished fourth in the National Collegiate Tournament.

Two years later, the women's golf team won the AIAW national title – UNCG's first-ever team national crown. Porter coached the squad and future professional golfer Donna Horton White was on the squad.

Since then, UNCG has enjoyed a number of successes:

- Five national titles in men's soccer during the 1980s and a runner-up finish in women's tennis.
- An unprecedented five-year move from Division III to Division II to Division I -- went from Division III in 1987, to Division II in 1988-90 and have been Division I since 1991.
- A trip to the "Big Dance" – the NCAA men's basketball tournament – in just its fifth year of Division I status.
- Men's soccer coach Michael Parker and women's basketball coach Lynne Agee were the first to lead teams to the NCAA tournament in all three divisions.
- A baseball squad built from scratch by Mike Gaski that made it to the NCAA tournament in just its fifth season of play.
- A men's soccer program that conquered all comers for two months to become the No. 1 team in the nation in 2004, the beginning of UNCG's three straight NCAA tournament Round of 16 appearances and four in five years.
- Kyle Hines, who became just the sixth player in college basketball history to record 2,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 300 blocked shots in a career.
- Individuals like wrestler Dock Kelly, who overcame birth defects that left him without legs, qualifying for the NCAA Championship.

- Students like Soggi Eyjolfsson, who earned Academic All-American honors three times.

- Men's basketball games moved off campus to the Greensboro Coliseum, one of the premier facilities in the country.

From major league pitcher Brian Moehler to MLS champion Alejandro Moreno to LPGA star Becky Morgan, Spartan alumni have gone on to successful careers in sports. That success isn't just limited to the playing field, either. The late Doug Hamilton was one of the pioneers within MLS and played on the UNCG national championship teams of the 1980s. Eyjolfsson returned to his native Iceland and is one of the top people in his native country's soccer federation, currently serving as their women's national team head coach.

Spartan athletics has had its success stories over the years ... and the best is yet to come.

1987 Men's Soccer Team

Team Inductions

1973 Women's Golf Team

(Inducted 2004) Won the first national championship of any kind for UNCG, competing in the AIAW National Tournament in Massachusetts ... defeated Rollins College on the final hole for the championship.

1981-82 Women's Basketball Team

(Inducted 2007) National runners-up in the first-ever NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Tournament ... amassed a record of 25-3, losing in overtime at Elizabethan College (Pa.) ... began a run of seven consecutive 20-win seasons for the women's basketball program.

1983 Men's Soccer Team

(Inducted 2009) Brought home the school's second consecutive national title with a dominant season. Went 23-1-1 on the year, including outscoring its seven conference foes by a combined 44-1. Twelve of its first 13 matches were won by shootout. Won a then-NCAA record 23 matches, including rallying from a 2-0 deficit in the national title match to defeat Olatemont.

1995-96 Men's Basketball Team

(Inducted 2012) The 1995-96 men's basketball team was the first men's basketball team to reach the NCAA Division I Tournament after posting a 20-10 overall record and an 11-3 mark in Big South Conference play ... The Spartans, under the direction of head coach Randy Peele, won the Big South Tournament title in just their second appearance all-time, posting victories over Coastal Carolina (78-67), Charleston Southern (69-60) and Liberty (69-53) ... UNCG advanced to the NCAA Tournament at the Southeast Region in Orlando, Fla., winning No. 7 Cincinnati, 66-61.

1982 Men's Soccer Team

(Inducted 2004) Won the NCAA Division III National Championship without a home field ... facilities at UNCG were under renovation at the time, forcing the team to play its games at near-by Grimsley High School ... the team finished 19-3-0, including a 3-0 win over Wake Forest during the regular season and a 2-1 win over Plymouth State in double overtime in the NCAA quarterfinals.

1983 Women's Tennis Team

(Inducted 2008) With four freshmen and two sophomores, team compiled a 20-4 record, including 14-2 in the spring, and finished the NCAA Division III national runners-up ... Amy Blown and Lisa Zimmelman earned All-American honors that season.

1994 Baseball Team

(Inducted 2010) The 1994 Spartan baseball squad became the first team in school history to record a victory in an NCAA tournament at the Division I level ... In just its fourth year of existence, UNCG went 39-18 on the way to a Big South Conference title and 2-2 at the NCAA South Regional, defeating Southeast Louisiana and Tulane while falling twice to national power Southern California.

1987-88 Women's Basketball Team

(Inducted 2013) The 1987-88 women's basketball team becomes the eighth team inducted into the UNCG Hall of Fame ... The squad posted a 26-7 overall record and a 13-1 mark in conference play before advancing all the way to the NCAA Division III National Semifinals ... The Spartans' 26 wins are second most in program history, while their 13 conference wins are the most in program history ... The Spartans owned one of the most prolific scoring teams in program history in 1987-88 as they broke the 100-point barrier seven times that season ... Additionally, that team still holds five of the top eight single-game scoring outputs in program history, including a program-record 139 points against Avelett College ... In fact, the victory over Avelett was the largest in program history as UNCG won by 100 points (139-39).
